

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Mrs. Cordelia Miller was sentenced to a lunatic before Judge Barnard Wednesday.

—A Norwegian with a bear amused the small boys and girls with its performances Monday.

—Police Judge Conmy had to come on his docket at the opening of the regular court Wednesday and the town was crowded with people. His court will probably hold several days.

—Jailer Dan Lovell captured the new notorious Craig Gragg on last Saturday morning. Gragg made two unsuccessful attempts before he finally escaped, but Dan didn't have the least trouble in taking him, to his and everybody's surprise.

—John Laws and Bill Green were arrested Tuesday evening for having a row at the depot with Carl Eels and Frank Saunders. Green, it is said, shot at Frank Saunders twice and struck him on the side of the head, making a bad looking wound, while Laws drew a knife on Eels. Trial will come off Friday.

—Considerable excitement was created Monday by 16 of the escaped convicts from Buiceville and Coal creek being lodged in the London jail. They were all colored and were started towards Nashville, Tuesday, guarded by E. M. and John Jackson, Town Marshal, Dick Harbin and James Boring. They went as far as Mr. Vernon, where they learned the losses would not pay the reward and turned them loose there. It was reported that the Knights of Labor would take out those confined in jail here Monday night, but Jailer Lovell didn't think anything of the kind and used no extra precautions and this result proved that he was perfectly right. Thursday evening three more were placed in jail here by Constable Tom Norvell to await a requisition. None of them denied being convicts.

South Fork, Lincoln County.

—Moses Colley is preparing to move his heading mill to a set on the land of Mr. J. E. Smith, near the New Salem church.

—Mr. James H. Thomas has closed his school this week on account of typhoid fever in the neighborhood and severity and impurity of the water.

—A dog, supposed to have hydrophobia, passed through this community last Thursday and bit a couple of hogs for J. M. Snow and disappeared before a gun could be obtained with which to kill him.

—Little Lou, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mullins, has been very low with mumps and whooping cough. Bertin, a little daughter of Mr. James Epthegrove, died last week. She had been a sufferer from birth with consumption.

—Whooping cough is worrying the little folks hereabouts with a vengeance just now. Scarcely a single urchin has escaped its narrowing grasp. The attendance at school has been rendered comparatively small by the scourge.

—Sorghum making has just closed and the quantity and quality seems to be the best for many years. Major B. Toombs and J. M. Snow made some 200 or 300 gallons for themselves and other parties. So you see, Mr. Davis, Lincoln can boast of sorghum as well as Casey. But when she attempts to compete with old Casey in first-class sorghum, she gets left.

—The people of this school district are not made of the stuff I always imagined them to be. Some two or three weeks ago Bill and Miss Tinsley and Edmund Lyons filled their bodies with whiskey, went down there and raised a ruckus with Mr. Thomas, the teacher, frightened the scholars out of their wits and in short completely broke up the school for that day. The trustees hustled around for a day or two, as though something terrible was going to be done, but the matter has cooled down and you scarcely hear it mentioned, except an occasional expression of sympathy for one of the young men. If trustees allow such deeds, committed at their schools, to go unpunished, I have a feeling of sympathy for the children and teachers, but for such trustees it would not matter if men should get drunk and spit in their faces. Tinsley and Lyons are both young men of not very enviable reputations and a better opportunity could not be had to teach them a lesson that would perhaps last them through life.

—Boyle.—Born, to the wife of J. B. Adams, of Longview, Ala. Sept. 30, a son, Hugh Logan. James Bramfield, one of Boyle county's oldest citizens, died at the home of his only son, Mr. Obe Bramfield, near Bramfield's Station, on last Thursday. The deceased would have been 83 years of age the 5th inst. Frank Johnson, son of Mrs. Anna Johnson, of this city, died in Atlanta Sunday of typhoid fever. He had about recovered from the attack, but got up too soon and had a relapse.—Advocate.

—The new county of Carlisle has made remarkable progress. It has paid its bonded indebtedness, has no floating debt and levies an ad valorem tax of 10 cents and a poll tax of 75 cents.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Station Agent Joe Carr tells us that on the future loss office will be in the freight depot. The telegraph office will be there also, as soon as the "blue man" gets the wires straightened out.

—Capt. Sen. Miller has been in town for several days looking after his property. We are exceedingly glad to state that he will probably return in a short while for Lancaster and will have a more public spirited citizen.

—Major B. Kinnick, the insurance agent, has purchased a handsome hall's safe for his office. If Lancaster suffers many more fires such as have visited her in the last few days, we are afraid that the safer would have much need of it.

—Wednesday, as "Uncle Ben" Robinson was making his base jump, a fence on his farm near town, his best caught, and he was thrown to the ground, badly cutting his head and face. The wounds are not dangerous, but exceedingly painful. He will be out in a few days.

—Wednesday morning between 4 and 5 o'clock, the K. C. passenger depot was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was sounded, but before the engine arrived the entire building was burning and nothing could be done except save the neighboring property. Nothing could be gotten out and express packages, baggage, tickets and telegraph instruments all went up in smoke. The safe was opened Wednesday and what few papers and books that were in it fared pretty well, but were slightly scorched. The origin of the fire is a mystery, as the agent left the office early the night before and everything was O. K. The general impression is that the office had been broken open by burglars, who dropped a match among some papers. It is not known yet when the railroad officials will rebuild, but if they will only give us a passenger train a goods-hox depot will be perfectly satisfactory.

—Sam Evans has gone to Florida to spend the winter. Miss Lettie Brown, of Lexington, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. James Bentley. Will C. Wherry, of Versailles, was here a few days this week. M. Braun has returned from Louisville and opened his store in the Bradley room on Lexington street. Miss Hattie Markum has been quite sick for several days, but is improving. Capt. T. W. Olds is in Nicholasville on business. Will Marrs has accepted a position as salesman for H. T. Logan & Co. Mrs. Blanche Sweeney opened her stock of millinery in the Miller Hotel building, next door to Passco's. Master Commissioner R. A. Barnside has recovered from his recent illness sufficiently to sit up. All the sales he had advertised to make last county court day, had to be readjusted for next court day.

Logans Creek and Dix River.

—Your scribe has returned from New York, where he went with the view of securing a position on the New York World, but on arriving at the World office and giving my name as a member of the Kentucky press and from Stanford, was immediately asked, "Do you know Editor Walter?" and not thinking, of course, "Yes, sir." "Good day," said the journalist who added, "I've seen your letters in his paper. What does he mean by publishing such rot?"

—E. B. Beazley sold to Monroe Hickman a lot of shots at 100, delivered this week. Miss Anne Hunt was taken quite ill Monday with a severe case of neuritis. Misses Lula, Timp, Stuart and Maud Pettus, two Crab Orchard beauties, were the guests of friends here the first of the week. Mrs. J. M. Beazley returned sick several days since from Middleboro, having left her business in charge of her son, Emory, until she was able to return.—Corn is now selling at $2.10 to $2.25 delivered in house, and no doubt it will reach $3 before Christmas.

—Mrs. H. M. Ballou and daughter, Miss Angie G., have returned to Lancaster, after several days' visit to her parents.—Our new Dix River, Logans Creek and Stanford turnpike, before some serious damage is done, should be substantially fenced in. One of the most dangerous places is in front of Widow Bangham's, and there are several other bad places between that and Rowland. Let us invite our president over the road.—The Misses Baker, of Boyle, are expected this week to be the guests of Mrs. E. W. Gaines, before leaving for Abilene, Tex., to reside.

A SINECURE AND A FIBBERKING.

Mr. Smith, of the statutes commission, is not entirely adequate to the demands of the occasion. He has not the capacity to do the work, but he seems to be no slouch at drawing his salary. The clerk's allowance is $10 per day. The commission needed a stenographer in its business and Smith could not do stenography worth a cent. That he is a shrewd citizen is evidenced by the fact that he hired a stenographer to do the work at $125 a month, and retains for himself the snug salary of $150 per month for doing nothing. Mr. Smith is a very poor clerk but a "devilish clever" manipulator.—Paducah News.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Miss James Beckwith, who was a Miss McPherson, died at Rowland Wednesday, after a protracted illness of fever. She leaves behind her husband and three young children.

—Miss Susan Bennett, a sister of ex-Senator John Bennett, died at Richmond. She was known throughout Kentucky as an active Christian worker in the Methodist church and at the time of her death was President of the Parsonage Aid Society of the Kentucky conference.

—The relatives and friends of Mr. John T. Gano, son of Gen. R. M. Gano, were shocked on the receipt of a dispatch Tuesday, announcing his sudden death at Laramie, Wyo., where he had gone on business. He left his home at Dallas, Texas, a week ago, in perfect health, apparently, and as no particulars have been received as to the cause of his sudden demise, it is supposed that the high altitude developed some unsuspected organic trouble of the heart. Mr. Gano was a splendid specimen of physical manhood and seemed more likely to live out the allotted span of life than most any person we could name. He was of fine address and affable and engaging manners, and was a most lovable man in every respect. In his adopted home at Dallas he had won friends by the hundreds and fortune had smiled most encouragingly on him in his real estate and banking business. Mr. Gano married Miss Clara Helin, daughter of Mrs. E. T. Rochester, of this place, and she with two little children survive him, utterly prostrated over her terrible loss. May the father of the fatherless and the God of consolation to the widow, heal the broken hearts and unite the loved ones again in a happy family above. Mrs. Rochester and Mrs. W. C. Welch left yesterday to attend the funeral, which occurs Sunday at Dallas.

—Since the above was written, a Laramie paper has been received by Col. Welch, from which we gather that Mr. Gano reached Laramie on Saturday. Sunday he drove 30 miles into the country on business. The weather was very cold. Returning Monday morning to Laramie in an open buggy, he died on the road. The doctor who examined the body said it was heart palsy, caused by the intense cold.

—Aug Bridgewater Denies That He Ever Knew the Gilliland Gang.
(To the Editor Interior Journal.)

MORLAND, Nov. 4.—In your paper of yesterday I saw where a dispatch from Somerset says that I was in council with the Somerset gang last Thursday. The sender is a liar. He lies because he wants to lie. Last Thursday I was in my own yard all day killing hogs that I bought that same day of B. B. King, and my next door neighbor will tell anybody the same. The Thursday before I was in Stanford, sitting in the court-house under Judge Morrow's eye, until 3 in the evening and then came home. I have not been out of sight of my house since. As for being in the gang, I never was nor ever had anything to do with them. I do not know any one of them, and I don't even know where they live. Ever since I have been in the county I have been tried under foot, for what cause I cannot tell. I have tried to treat all men as well as I could, but there is one thing sure, I have no enemies in the good class of men. My enemies are the rabble of the county, and that ought to show that I am not one of them. Many years ago, when I was hunted down and went in the woods and laid eight years, I thought that I would wear out, but notwithstanding all that, to-day I have more enemies than if I had been the bad man that they made me out. My house is full of bullets and I know the parties that put them there, but I am not allowed any protection more than my arms can give me. I have made several attempts to explain my whole life, but I have never been able to get a newspaper to publish anything. I think it is hard to live the life I live, after the bitter attestation I have made for all that I have been accused of. A. BRIDGEWATER.

The Interior Journal is publishing some very interesting contributions from its former business manager, Mr. Ed. C. Walton, who is now a merchant at Atlanta. The last issue of that paper was ornamented with an excellent picture of the clever and talented young gentleman, who for many years presided over the business interests of the J. J. with such fidelity and success.—Danville Advocate.

—Mrs. Peters—"Did your husband have a good time in New York, Mrs. Bentley?" Mrs. Bentley—"Well, I don't really know; but I guess from what he has let drop about seeing the elephant and backing the tiger, he must have spent a good deal of his time at the menagerie."

DEMOCRACY!

It Triumphs in New York
Massachusetts and Iowa.

And More than Holds its own in Virginia, Maryland, Mississippi
and New Jersey.

The Republicans Carry Ohio and Pennsylvania and Make a Great
Ado About It.

LET US REJOICE AND BE GLAD.

The latest returns show that New York went democratic by over 40,000 and that possibly the legislature is democratic. Gov. Russell's plurality in Massachusetts is 5,000 and over, and Gov. Hoies is re-elected in Iowa by 8,000. The rest of the ticket is also elected, but by less majorities. The legislature is in doubt. The republicans are trying to look happy over the result in Ohio, but it is like whistling to keep their courage up. They hardly held their own in electing McKinley, whose plurality is less than Harrison's. Fassel's own town, Elmira, N. Y., went against him 504.

The people's party wasn't in it anywhere. It leaders claimed 75,000 in Ohio and got 11,500.

Oh, yes, we almost forgot. Cook county, Ill., also went republican. Another crumb for the almost disheartened republicans.

The democrats will have the largest majority in the New Jersey Legislature next session they have ever had—35 on joint ballot.

The power of the alliance is broken in Kansas politics. They met a crushing defeat Tuesday, only electing one of the ten district judges.

The democrats had everything their own way in the legislative races in Virginia and the only will be more than three-fourths of that party.

The six vacancies in Congress were filled equally by democrats and republicans. Young Hook succeeds his father in the Knoxville, Tenn., district.

The Memphis Public Ledger says: "Tariff reform seems to be in the air, and soon the proudest thing a man can say of himself will be: 'I am a Cleveland democrat.'"

In Maryland the democrats sweep everything before them. Brown is elected governor by 20,000 majority, the legislature is overwhelmingly democratic and will re-elect Senator Norman.

Nebraska and Colorado went republican, but there is Mississippi with a democratic majority twice as much as both of them put together, so we can, very reasonably for the other side, call that a dog fall.

Returns on the legislature show that it is reliably republican, and a careful canvass of the senatorial preferences of the members elected, indicates that if Gov. Foraker really has senatorial aspirations his election is assured beyond a shadow of a doubt. —Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

Commenting on the victory the New York World says: It means in national affairs that New York is soundly and securely democratic; that on the tariff and other national issues, forced to the front by Gov. Hill, Mr. Cleveland and other democratic speakers, New York is a strongly democratic State for next year's presidential election.

Ex-President Cleveland on the election. "Of course every one has a right to put his own construction upon the result, and I am not anxious to obtrude my ideas, but it seems to me one thing ought not to be doubtful. Any man who still thinks tariff reform is a settled and obsolete issue, or that the importance of sound and safe money is a question upon which the people can be blinded, is either willfully wrong or dangerously dull. It seems to me democrats ought to be satisfied that a staunch adherence to the principles of their party does not require the abuse of those who show an inclination to help us. I very much regret the defeat of Gov. Campbell. He has been a brave and honest official. This and the splendid canvass he made entitled him to success. While the election of Flower, Russell and Boies ought to cause the utmost rejoicing among democrats, they should not forget that with these things comes the obligation to be true to the people, honest in the advocacy of our principles and decent in all things."

W. P. WALTON.

The election news is good and grows better. Flower carries New York by fully 40,000 majority and the legislature is democratic on joint ballot by a small margin. In Massachusetts Gov. Russell is re-elected by a plurality of 6,000, while Iowa clings to Gov. Boies by an increased vote. In each of these States the tariff was made the paramount issue and the result is most encouraging to the democrats. The Hercules effort put forth by the republicans in Ohio to save McKinley was rewarded with success and his plurality is perhaps 15,000. Campbell made a magnificent fight against great odds and he deserves the applause of every democrat in the land. The legislature in Ohio is republican and as it is to choose a successor to Sherman, that enters a considerable figure. Pennsylvania only voted for some minor State officers and they were taken by the republicans by large majorities. These five States are the only ones in which national issues figured and the fact that the democrats carried three of the most important shows how the wind is setting for 1892. With our sweeping victory of last year, supplemented by the grand achievement of Tuesday, it looks like the democrats are sure of success next year. If they can hold what they have, and they can by unremitting effort, the next president is sure to be a democrat, and what better, honest and more patriotic man can be found for the office than Grover Cleveland?

The Memphis Commercial doesn't mince words about the Briceville mob. It says: "If it takes the whole power of the State—every man and every dollar—the governor should call out the one and expend the other in bringing the perpetrators of the arson and attempted murder at Briceville to justice. In order to secure more money than he has at his command he may be compelled to call the legislature together again. But that is a matter of a few days. In the presence of such wholesale crime, a repetition of which is threatened at other mines, the governor is hampered by lack of funds."

The miners released 200 more convicts at Oliver Springs, Tenn., Monday night, and burned the stockade. The convicts were furnished citizens' clothes and most of them are striking for distant points. In the meantime Gov. Buchanan contents himself with issuing proclamations of reward for the leaders of the mob and the convicts. The Louisville Post calls him a blithering muddlehead and that seems to strike center. His entire treatment of the trouble has been characterized by cowardice and blunders, which show his utter incapacity for the high office he holds.

There is every indication that the commissioners appointed to revise the statutes are going to make a botch of it. They haven't gone at it like they know anything more than how to draw their salaries and make the expense account as great as possible. They already have a clerk and a stenographer and talk about the revision taking a year. It wouldn't require a third of that time if they were paid by the job instead of $10 a day.

The republicans carried Ohio, but it took a mint of money and a heap of chin music to do it. All the clerks at Washington were assessed 3 per cent. of their salaries to help McKinley out and the protected industries plunked up money by the thousands. It was a life and death struggle both for McKinley and his party.

Carter Harrison, ex-mayor of Chicago, having made a failure in politics and other affairs, is like a great many other people. He thinks if there is one thing that he knows it is how to run a newspaper, so he has bought him one, the Chicago Times. If he doesn't run it in the ground in six months he will be doing well.

The Lexington Press charges that the Transcript sold out to Davidson for $500. The Transcript does not resent the charge and hurl defiance at its accuser, but calmly admits that it took money from the candidates to print good things about them in the same way it would from merchants.

OL. W. G. BRADLEY, who was here yesterday, didn't see anything in the election to discourage the republicans, who he thinks are in much better position than a year ago. He is for Harrison and McKinley in 1892 and feels confident that it is a winning combination.

New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Iowa and Ohio gave Harrison a total plurality of 175,801. Tuesday all this was wiped out, except in Ohio and Pennsylvania, where it is largely reduced in the former and cut in two in the latter.

Profiting by Kentucky's experience, Pennsylvania voted against calling a constitutional convention by a large majority. It is usually better in such matters to bear the ills we have than fly to others that we know not of.

This is the way Bob Ingersoll acknowledged the gift of a quart of Kentucky whisky from a friend: "Accept my thanks for the package of happiness, of good nature, of mental serenity and exaltation that you were kind enough to send me. In this world of trouble, pain and sorrow, it is a great thing to have sunshine in a portable and potable form, so that one can laugh at clouds and frosts and make climate to suit himself. Thanking you again, I remain yours truly."

Conv. Nicksa, aged 18, of Lebanon, Ind., smoked a cigarette and laid down and died. If such smoking would affect about half the dudes in that way, we might worry along with the balance of them.

THEY BLANKED AND BURNED the democratic standard bearers in 1892 would sweep the country, and that is mighty certain to be the ticket.

—A. T. Nunneley sold in Cincinnati a car-load of mixed cattle at 1:40 to 2:30 and 4 car-loads of hogs at 3:05 to 3:30.

—A. T. Nunneley bought of Mrs. Mary Matheny 7 heifers at 2 cents and of Owsley Stephenson 13 hogs at 3 cents.

—John Hughes and William Bates, of Somerset, captured 49 of the Tennessee convicts and took them to Nashville in a box car.

—One of the highest priced lots of cattle at Chicago this season arrived Friday, the two car-loads averaging 1,625 pounds and sold at 61.

—I have 90 head of 1, 2 and 3-year-old cattle, mostly steers, for sale. Will sell on 12 months' credit, with note made payable to bank. Will have them here county court day, Nov. 9th. J. L. Slatten.

—N. P. & W. W. Gay delivered to W. B. Kidd last week 95 cattle, that averaged 1,511 pounds, at 51. Now corn well matured is being delivered in the city at $2 per barrel.—Winchester Sun.

—Cattle are a little higher in Cincinnati. Best shippers bring 5, from which figure prices run down to 1; the top of the hog market is 1 cent, with moderate activity, sheep are dragging at 2 to 1 cents.

—The dairy herd of Scott & Perkins, near Lexington, 49 in number, averaged $90, some selling as high as $100; young calves $25 to $40. Mules brought $125; corn per barrel in the field $1.90; hay $15 a stack, estimated at 1 1/2 tons each.

—Pars.—About 300 head of cattle on the market and generally sold. Feeders of good weight sold from 33 to 360; yearlings $15 to $18 per head; calves $10 to $14. Nothing doing in mules. J. F. Clay bought 67 steers 1,000 to 1,150 pounds at 3 to 3 1/2.—Kentuckian.

—Palo Alto lowered his record at Stockton, Cal., Tuesday, to 2:09, within 1 of a second of Allerton's. He went to the quarter post in 32, to the half in 1:01; three quarters in 1:30, when he went off his feet, but caught quickly and came down the stretch at his best speed.

—J. P. Embury, of Madison, bought of W. L. Reid, Friday, 40 1,225-pound cattle at 33 cents. D. C. Terhune bought of James Hackley, of Lincoln, 17 suckling mules, all raised by Mr. Hackley, at $12. John Baughman sold to W. B. Cecil a bunch of fat hogs, about 275 pounds average, at 3 1/2 cents.—Advocate.

—Judge Barr, in the United States court at Covington, decided that John Brannin, part owner of the race horse Polk Budget, must be restored to all the rights and privileges of the Latonia and other race courses, claiming that the circumstances did not warrant the Latonia officials in taking their recent action.

News to Most People.—A German authority says that almost a third of all humanity—that is, 400,000,000—speak the Chinese language. Then the Hindu language is spoken by more than 100,000,000. In the third place stands the English, spoken by almost 100,000,000. Fourth, the Russian, with 80,000,000, while the German language is spoken by 57,000,000 tongues and the Spanish by about 48,000,000. Of the European languages the French is 5th in place.

LOST.—A white and liver-colored bitch of medium size. She has a toe nail on one front foot and one hind one that looks as if it had been mashed off. Finder please return to this office or to us and receive a liberal reward. A. E. Humbley or Robert McAlister.

GRAB OR BARR.—Dr. W. M. Doores tells that a little child of John McClure died suddenly yesterday morning in convulsions, after being sick less than two hours. Mr. A. J. Sigler is in the last stages of consumption and may be dead before these lines are read.

FOUL.—W. L. Dawson killed an eagle yesterday which measured 81 inches from tip to tip and from end of tail to bill 36 inches. Its talons measure 8 inches across and its longest claw 22 inches. He was killed at 200 yards with a short No. 32 cartridge out of a Mills gun.

SEPT. W. F. McELARY has received a draft for $5,442.30 and is ready to pay the teachers.

The house of J. W. Harker, at Hustonville, caught fire from the flue Tuesday, but was saved by heroic efforts. Sam Anderson, a negro of the same town, lost his cabin and his all the same day by fire.

The Brown Light Infantry will give a grand reception and ball to Gov. Brown at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, Friday evening, Nov. 13th, for an invitation to which we are indebted to Capt. James C. Bryant.

There were 30 convicts on yesterday's train, captured at Mt. Vernon. They were packed together with their chains around their necks and were being taken to Nashville for the purpose of $25 each.

Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE LEE PENNY are rejoicing over their first-born. Before it was half a day old the proud father remarked that it was the best baby he ever saw; didn't cry a bit. It is a girl. All of old man Penny's grandchildren are girls.

Within a couple of days of cloudiness it rained a few drops Wednesday night, but it failed off yesterday and at this writing it looks like it will never rain again. The scarcity of water is becoming distressing. The cry goes up from all parts of this section.

Mrs. A. B. BIGH, the well-known teacher of elocution and physical culture, will be here next week to get up a class. Mrs. Bigh has the highest testimonials from Elders H. T. Wilson, J. S. Spouse and others and those who patronize her will do so with an absolute guarantee of her ability to do anything she claims.

The Chicago Dramatic and Sporting Journal speaks in high praise of the McAnister's Troupes Co., which appears at Walton's Opera House, on the 17th. The performance is a most laughable one and the Dublin Town Band is a great feature. The company is not likely to get stranded soon as each member wears a $20 gold piece as a charm.

The ban of W. L. Saunders has been reduced to $2,000, but he has not given it yet, though his friends claim he can easily do so. One of the jury who tried the case, tells us that on the first ballot six were for acquittal, one for the highest penalty for murder, three for 10 years, one for four and one for two years, but all of the six for conviction agreed to two years provided the six for acquittal would unite on that punishment.

We are in receipt of the following: A pound party was given by Misses Belle and Mollie Mershon Tuesday evening and was enjoyed by a dozen or more complex of young friends. The young ladies were assisted in entertaining by J. W. Mershon and Miss Mollie Hales and an elegant lunch was served at 9 o'clock. The guests departed at 12 o'clock. All who attended the party will never regret it.

It was reported here yesterday that J. S. McWilliams, who is postmaster at O. K. and ran a small store there, had skipped out. It appears that he had been talking in a scandalous manner about some ladies in his neighborhood and their friends went to him and told him that he either had to straighten the matter up, take a whipping or leave the country. He accepted the latter horn of the dilemma and has gone where the woodbine twines. He is said to be considerably in debt and given to the habit of obtaining money on checks drawn on a Somerset bank, which are usually returned endorsed "no funds." This only can testify to this as he got it for a small amount.

The circuit court has been engaged in trying civil cases since last report. Thomas James, engineer, who proved that he was permanently injured in a week more than a year ago, was given a verdict of $10,000 against the U. & N. on a suit for $10,000 damages. The road will appeal. In the case of Wm. Welsh vs. John S. Hughes and Dr. J. F. Peyton for $10,000 contract price for water privileges and land for the Stanford water works and damages, a compromise was effected. The defendants pay Mr. Welsh $200 and the contract is rescinded, both parties paying their own costs. The contest over the Lancaster police judgment between Walton Eason and J. C. Hemphill was by agreement changed back to Garrard. The suit of G. Wine against J. S. Owsley, Sr., for the price of a monument was compromised by Mr. Owsley paying $300 and Wine retaining the monument. Alex. Traylor and John Traylor also compromised their case and it was stricken from the docket. Mrs. Matilda Gooch was denied a divorce from her husband, W. D. Gooch, and it is probable the suit of Mrs. Nettie Dawson vs. B. F. Dawson will be withdrawn. John Higginbotham vs. the U. & N., for $10,000 damages for being knocked down by one of its engines while he was in the employ of the road, at Rowland, breaking his leg and otherwise injuring him, has occupied the court for the last two days. J. W. Alcorn represented the road and Judge R. J. Breckinridge, Robert Harding and Miller & Owsley the defendant and they were speaking in the case all last afternoon.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—An exchange says that the late Eld. John A. Gano made 10,000 conversions during his service in the ministry.

—The colored Baptists are having the cupola built to their church, which was started several years ago and stopped on account of a lack of funds.

—The charges of heresy against Prof. Briggs, of Union Theological Seminary, were dismissed by the Presbytery of New York by a large majority.

—Rev. Nightingale, colored, was fined $50 and sentenced to 60 days in the Memphis work-house for assault and battery committed in the church.

—Rev. W. E. Arnold reports the Sunday School Conference at Moreland well attended and highly enjoyable. The singing was an especial feature as there were a number of good vocalists present.

—The meeting conducted by Rev. J. R. Harrison of Virginia, at the Mayeville Baptist church, closed with 10 additions. A debt of $5,000 was also raised, that has been hanging over the church since it was completed.

—Bishop McClosky has ordered prayer for rain offered in all the churches in the Louisville diocese. It was a Georgia Herald who said, "Brethren, I'm a genuine to pray for rain, but it is my private opinion that that'll be none till the wind changes."—Louisville Times.

—Rev. C. A. Taylor, D. D., educational agent for the Florida A. M. E. churches, has come to the conclusion, "after a most painstaking investigation of science, philosophy and theology, that Hell is located in the centre of the earth, at a distance of 52 miles from the surface."

—Elder J. W. Harding, of Winchester, has accepted the call from the Flat Woods church, this county, for the 25th year of his ministry at that place. He joined the church soon after the doctrine of Alexander Campbell spread over this country, half a century ago, and has been preaching nearly ever since.—Richmond Clinch.

—Eight years ago the State Board sent Gen. Green Clay Smith to Williamsburg as a missionary. After a series of sermons and visits he organized a Baptist church of seven members, with no house of worship. Now they have 200 members, a handsome brick church on a fine lot, an elegant parsonage near by and across the railroad a few squares a $15,000 brick college, with a $20,000 investment endowment, thus making Williamsburg an educational and religious centre.

—Dr. R. B. Tyler, chairman of the committee appointed at the last International Christian Missionary meeting, held in Des Moines, Ia., to devise plans for the unification of all the churches in the United States, says: "There is a spirit abroad which is full of encouragement for the scheme. I firmly believe that we will accomplish our object. There are four distinct bases on which such a unification is possible, namely: Submission, confederation, consolidation and restoration. In the first base, submission is the principal tenet of the Catholic creed. All denominations can unite on this point. The Episcopalians believe in consolidation for all general work, and they will fall in line on that principle. Confederation is one of the tenets of Presbyterianism. Restoration is our creed, the Christian. We believe in going back to the primitive form of christian worship."

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Judge Z. Gibbons and Miss Lillian Anderson were married at Louisville Nov. 3d, and will be at home in Lexington after Dec. 1st.

—Miss Mary Giovannioli, of Danville, and Mr. Leonard Tingle, of Lexington, will be married at the Danville Methodist church, Nov. 11, at 3 o'clock.

—Gen. E. Burd Grubb, U. S. minister to Spain, was married at South Kensington, Scotland, to Miss Violet Spry, a rich Scotch woman. The wedding was a very swell affair.

—Prince Oscar, of Sweden, who married Miss Ella Munch, some two years ago, leads a very serene existence with the woman of his choice, whom he wed he gave up all rights to the throne.

—It is the confession of a Burlington, Iowa, suitor, who has been twice married, that the first wife cured a man of romance, the second teaches him humility and the third makes him a philosopher.

The Lincoln County Teachers' Association.

Will meet at Bright's School-house Saturday, Nov. 21st, at 10:30 a. m.

Essay—Miss Eliza Smith. Physical Culture—Mrs. J. F. Gover. Why Should the Teacher be a Student of Psychology?—Prof. J. W. Smith. The Teacher's Work—W. R. Cross. Essay—Miss Alice Stuart.

All teachers and friends of education are earnestly requested to be present and take part in the discussions. The meetings are growing in interest. The people are beginning to realize the importance of popular education. Come teachers and assist in the noble work.

JOHN A. CHAPPELL, president. W. F. McELARY, Clk. Com.

Out in the wild and woolly West a Catholic priest has increased his price of masses. Ten dollars will be charged for the high and $5 for the low. For some reason, however, the reverend sir fails to make quotations on Jack and the game.—Owensboro Inquirer.
